QUESTION 1 Suisan Maru, this is a fishing inspection vessel. Have you already sent notification of your fishing operations?

1. We suspect the fish hold is not large enough.
2. No. Our radio operator is not engaged in fishing now.
3. I know this is a good fishing area, especially for tuna.
4. No. We are proceeding to another fishing ground. We won't fish here.

QUESTION 2 Yokohama Maru, this is Port Control. The cruise ship will turn ahead of you. You must stay clear of the fairway.

1. I have always wanted to take a cruise.
2. I will enter the fairway immediately in front of the ship.
3. I will reduce speed and wait for the ship to clear the fairway.
4. I will come in close to the cruise ship in order to take pictures of it.

QUESTION 3 Sendai Maru, this is Port City. Because of the bad weather, the pilot will reach you at the meeting point in the tug boat instead of the pilot boat. Stay at the point near number one buoy.

1. I understand. I will enter the port without a pilot.
2. Understood. I will wait for the tug boat near number one buoy.
3. I understand. I will wait until the weather gets better to meet the pilot.
4. Understood. I will wait for the pilot boat as usual near number one buoy.

QUESTION 4 Tokyo Maru, this is Port City. On account of the problem at the originally assigned berth, we are arranging a new berth for you. We want to confirm whether you can pass under the bridge. What is your air draught?

1. Ours is 20 meters. I hope that is low enough.
2. It is 7 meters. I hope we can have a good under keel clearance.
3. Our total length is 50 meters. I hope the berth is long enough.
4. I will ask our captain about his birthplace. I know he is 50 years old.

QUESTION 5 Osaka Maru, this is Coast Guard Radio. We received your urgent message and understand you need our help to extinguish the fire in the galley. We have just asked fire boats to go to you. Keep us informed of the situation.

1. Thanks to the fire boats, the fire is already out.
2. Will you call an ambulance in addition to the fire engines?
3. Yes, please. We extinguished the fire ourselves a long time ago.
4. Thank you for your quick action. The fire is spreading. I hope the fire boats will arrive soon.
